WOMEN OF FAITH:

Please join us on Zoom on Monday, December 7, at 7 p.m. for a Women of Faith Christmas Social.

Obviously, we can't meet as usual but we can still have a party! A link will be sent to those ladies on last year's WOF list a few days before this event.

Wear something festive. Set yourself up in front of your Christmas décor. Prepare yourself a beverage (hot chocolate? Wine? Mulled cider?) and add a Christmas treat (fancy cookie? Shortbread?).

Start thinking now about a favourite Christmas memory or tradition you'd like to share with our group. Oh yes.... Have a pencil and paper on hand for the Christmas Trivia contest.

We hope to have a wonderful turnout for this Women of Faith Christmas Social. See you on December 7.

Hello Faith Family:

After enjoying a relatively pleasant, lovely warm summer, we are back again in lockdown. Our popular Friday morning visits at Victoria Park have come to an end. These were lovely times, seeing our friends, catching up on the news and enjoying our beautiful town. Many times we got to wish Mayor Krantz a good Friday morning as he headed to Council Chambers! Some of you might know that film crews have taken over Main Street. "The Man from Toronto" starring Woody Harrelson and Kevin Hart is being filmed this week, We are famous!!

Haven't our Sunday morning services been so enjoyable. Wonderful for us to see each other and are able to visit after the service. I wanted to single out last Sunday's Worship Team lead by Shirley Dusmet along with Mavis O'Neill, David Wentzell, Rebecca Hunter, Lorna Turner and Judy Henderson. This dedicated group of Faith members meet by Zoom every month, do the work, and take the time and put the services together that we all enjoy each Sunday. I know each one of you reading this will join me in thanking this team from the bottom of our hearts....You Make It Happen, and we are so grateful. Thank You!

I wish you all a wonderful week and Blessings until we meet again dear friends,

Louise Prevost, Council Chair, Faith United Milton

Zoom Church Services
